BACUIT BAY / EL NIDO

DAY 01 ACCOMMODATION : KAYAKASIA PALAWAN (NATIVE BEACH CAMP) MEALS : L / D	Met-up in Art Café – 730AM. With you, 2 nights expedition bag, dry packed – (highly suggested). We can provide storage for bags not going with you on the kayak. After the expedition briefing, we shall make our way to the put in point. Our accommodation for the night is where our very own El Nido Station is located. A sought-after beach of the “Survivor” tele series. But first, we paddle out of the bustling main town of El Nido. Lunch along the way in a popular stretch of beach. PADDLE DISTANCE : 16k
DAY 02 – BACUIT SOUTH ACCOMMODATION : KAYAKASIA PALAWAN (NATIVE BEACH CAMP) MEALS : B / L / D	The quieter side of Bacuit. From our beach camp, you’ll be treated to sandbanks, one you can walk on lowest tide, caves, isolated beaches and wildlife. We particularly love exploring the coastlines and islands in this part of El Nido as it is less crowded and offers a lot of exploration options. PADDLE DISTANCE : 14k
DAY 03 – LAGOONS ACCOMMODATION : OWN MEALS : B / L / D	To enjoy what Bacuit Bay is popularly known for, we have to wake up early for it. A sunrise paddle to the lagoons to end our expedition! The earlier the quieter. PADDLE DISTANCE : 10k
	*route may changed should weather conditions change

LEVEL : from Beginners to Intermediate (some level of fitness maybe necessary)

This trip is perfect for those wanting to see El Nido from a more adventurous perspective. Different from the usual alphabet tour route, designed to align with the wind and water conditions on the month.

SERVICE CONDITIONS

Risk Information

Outdoor adventure travel like kayak touring carries inherent risks because nature is hard to predict. It is important to be aware of the decisions made during the trip, and if at any time you are uncomfortable with the risks involved, to opt out of the specific activity. Because of the remoteness of our trips, medical help is far away and would not be immediate. By signing up for this expedition, you would have consulted your doctor about your medical and health suitability for such trips.

Deposit & Fees

The deposit amount is 50% of the trip fee. A payment of deposit amount must be received to confirm the trip. The full balance of your payment is due 14 days before your departure.

Medical & Travel Insurance

It is compulsory be fully vaccinated (against covid) and to purchase your own comprehensive travel insurance.

Delays

If the trip is delayed because of bad weather, delays by modes of transport, third party providers, or situations for which the organizer cannot make provisions, the cost of such delays to the participants would not be refunded.

Cancellations (specific for this trip)

Due to the location, a significant portion of our expenses are committed long before departure. When we receive written notice of a trip cancellation more than 14 days prior to departure, your full deposit (50% of trip fee) will be forfeited. Should you decide to cancel your trip less than fourteen days prior to departure, no refund will be possible.

Cancelled Trips

Due to the nature of operating in the wilderness, we reserve the right to cancel any trip prior to departure for any reason whatsoever, including unforeseen logistical problems which may impede trip and safety operations. If the trip is cancelled less than two weeks before departure, a full refund would be given, but we would not be able to refund personal expenses incurred in preparation for the trip (e.g., air tickets, insurance, equipment, etc.). If the trip is cancelled with advanced notice of more than four weeks, a replacement trip on another date with the same itinerary and comparable value will be offered.
